1. WMD fears block export cargo, Sean Parnell, Australian, 2010-04-06

Defence Minister John Faulkner has blocked another Australian shipment feared destined for a weapons of mass destruction program. The $US115,000 ($125,000) GBC shipment to Pakistan is the fourth to be blocked by the minister.

- Implementing United Nations Security Council Resolution 1540 \(UNSC 1540\), Nautilus Institute, Australia

2. Push to end nuclear trafficking, Daniel Flitton, Age, 2010-04-08

A crackdown on the nuclear black market will spearhead a push by more than 40 countries to stop terrorists from obtaining atomic materials. But Prime Minister Kevin Rudd is yet to decide whether he will attend the special summit of world leaders in Washington, despite Australia confirming it will take part in the talks.

3. Unmanned aircraft could soon patrol borders, Ari Sharp, Age, 2010-04-06

Unmanned aircraft may be detecting the weather, monitoring crops and patrolling Australia's borders in the next decade. The government communications authority has begun considering ways to allocate the spectrum space needed to communicate with the equipment to avoid interference with defence force communications.

6. Afghan President Rebukes West and U.N., Alissa J. Rubin, NYT, 2010-04-01

Hamid Karzai, the Afghan president, delivered extraordinarily harsh criticism of the Western governments fighting in his country, the United Nations, and the British and American news media, accusing them of perpetrating the fraud that denied him an outright victory in last summer's presidential elections.

- Karzai plays word games in Kabul, Charles Recknagel, Asia Times, 2010-04-08

7. Can anyone pacify the world's number one narco-state? The opium wars in Afghanistan, Alfred W. McCoy, Asia-Pacific Journal: Japan Focus, 2010

In ways that have escaped most observers, the Obama administration is now trapped in an endless cycle of drugs and death in Afghanistan from which there is neither an easy end nor an obvious exit. After a year of cautious debate and costly deployments, President Obama finally launched his new Afghan war strategy in Marja in southern Afghanistan's Helmand Province.

8. Yudhoyono talks tough on illegal logging, AFP, Jakarta Globe, 2010-04-07

President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono identified illegal logging as another form of entrenched corruption he wants to add to his growing list of "mafia." The former general talked tough about stopping the world's fastest deforestation rates as he left for a regional summit in Vietnam where the environment looms as a key issue.

- SBY orders taskforce to handle illegal logging mafia, Erwida Maulia, Jakarta Post, 2010-04-04
