 - It's An Order - Japanese Bid Sayonara, Iraq, Deborah Cameron, SMH, 2006-06-21

- 2.
3. Fretilin Poised to Sack Alkatiri, Stephen Fitzpatrick and David Nason, Australian, 2006-06-22 East Timor's ruling Fretilin party last night withdrew its support of PM Mari Alkatiri and decided to replace him with Foreign Minister Jose Ramos Horta. The party's central committee decided at an emergency meeting to effectively sack Dr Alkatiri after the Council of State, headed by President Xanana Gusmao, demanded his resignation.
4. Army Rushes to Set Up Base for 3000 in Timor, Nick O'Malley, SMH, 2006-06-22 The depth of Australia's military commitment to East Timor has been revealed in an urgent tender document for the establishment and maintenance of a base for up to 3000 soldiers and civilian support staff from Australia and "coalition partners".

6. Corruption Rife In Indonesian Military, Morgan Mellish, AFR*, 2006-06-22 Indonesia's military businesses are still involved in wide-scale human rights abuses despite government efforts to modernise the country's armed forces, according to an international monitoring organisation. New York-based Human Rights Watch says military-controlled ventures are heavily involved in illegal mining and logging as well as drug, protection and prostitution rackets.

10. Indonesia's Fight against Bird Flu Needs International Support: FAO, Bhimanto Suwastoyo, NYT, 2006-06-21 Indonesia cannot fight bird flu on its own and needs support from the international community, an expert has said. The world's fourth most populous country has reported the world's highest number of human deaths from bird flu this year. Peter Roeder, from the UN's Food and Agriculture Organisation (FAO) said that just for initial "capacity building", 50 million dollars was needed over the next three years.
