1. British Exit Plan Not for Us: Nelson, Brendan Nicholson, Age, 2006-11-24The British planned to reduce their numbers in Iraq, Dr Nelson said, but Australia would not. "For the moment we have no intention of withdrawing our troops until the Iraqis themselves and our coalition partners the British, the Romanians and others * are all satisfied that the Iraqis can take control of their own affairs."

1. Fighter Tail Spin Feared, John Kerin, AFR*, 2006-11-24Australia's $50 billion defence procurement program, especially the $16 billion Joint Strike Fighter project, could be disrupted if the new Democratic majority in Congress succeeds in a push to cut or delay "big ticket" Bush administration military projects that are being shared with the Australian military.

12. Rapid Tests for Bird Flu Are Flawed, Studies Show, Donald G. McNeil Jr, IHT, 2006-11-24Avian flu is extremely hard to detect with standard tests, but waiting for laboratory confirmation of an outbreak would cause dangerous treatment delays, according to new studies of two flu outbreaks. The studies, published Thursday in The New England Journal of Medicine, were of family clusters of flu cases in Turkey and Indonesia.
