Ref: (a) SM 408-59 of 17 April 1959

1. CINCPAC Command History as required by reference (a) is hereby promulgated. This history contains classified information of the important actions of CINCPAC in 1961 and therefor receives limited distribution.

2. This document contains information effecting the security of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U. S. C. Section 793 and 794. Transmission or revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law; it is not releasable to foreign nations. The material contained within this document is to be treated with the utmost discretion. Under no circumstances shall possession thereof, or the information contained therein, be given to any personnel other than those whose duties specifically require knowledge thereof. Information imparted to any individual will be the minimum required in the performance of his duties.

3. The security classification is indicated for each page of this document. Where items within a page are of a lower security classification than the page, this lower classification is indicated. This letter of promulgation is unclassified when removed from basic history.

4. The contents of this document may be extracted, and when extracted will be handled and safeguarded in accordance with the indicated classification.
