1. The CINCPAC Command History 1969 is promulgated in response to the direction of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.
2. This document contains information affecting the security of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U. S. Code, Sections 793 and 794. Transmission or revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. The material contained within this document is to be treated with the utmost discretion. Under no circumstances shall possession thereof be transferred, or the information contained therein be imparted, to personnel other than those whose duties specifically require knowledge thereof. Information provided any individual will be the minimum required in the performance of his duties.
3. The security classification indicated for each page of this document is according to the highest classification of any paragraph thereon. In those instances when the reverse side of a page is intentionally left blank this is so indicated on the lower right hand corner of the preceding page by the following notation: Reverse Blank p. and the page number of the blank page. (For example: Reverse Blank p. 47.) As a result, the pages of this history will be numbered consecutively with the odd numbers always appearing on the front of a page and the even numbers on the reverse side.
