The screenshot shows the Nautilus Institute homepage. At the top left is the Nautilus logo (a nautilus shell) and the text "The Nautilus Institute for Security and Sustainable Development". Below this is a paragraph of text describing the institute's mission and a list of projects with icons: "Northeast Asia Peace and Security Network (NAPSNet)", "Asia Pacific Regional Environmental Network (APREN)", "Energy, Security and Environment in Northeast Asia (ESENA)", and "Pipitok Project". At the bottom, there is a "More About Nautilus" section with a table of links: "More About Our Projects and Staff", "Nautilus Institute's Quarterly Newsletter", "FOCUS on the Global South", "Related Internet Resources", and "Recent Announcements and Job Listings". A footer line reads "For more information, send email to info@nautilus.org".
