Obama Foreign Policy in Asia, Worldview, Chicago Public Radio, WBEZ 91.5 FM, 5 November 2008.

"The US has the potential to end North Korea's ability to produce plutonium to make nuclear weapons... To do this though the President-Elect will need a clear policy on how to deal with the North that will resolve the political infighting in Washington over this issue and an experienced team that knows how to negotiate with North Korea."
