

INVnet Biweekly Update, July 31, 2002

Recommended Citation

Ethical Governance Of Investment Network Bulletin, "INVnet Biweekly Update, July 31, 2002", Uncategorized Semi-Weekly Bulletin, July 31, 2002, <https://nautilus.org/uncategorized/invnet-biweekly-update-july-31-2002/>

LATEST REPORT

July 31, 2002

Volume 2, #06

Ethical Governance Of Investment Network Bulletin

1. World Summit Attracts 106 Leaders, Not USA
 2. New Interpretation of NAFTA Chapter 11 Provisions
 3. State employees' pension fund flexes its muscle around the world
 4. WRI report warns environmental risks could reduce shareholder value of leading oil and gas companies
 5. Market Slump Providing Unexpected Boost To Socially Responsible Mutual Funds
-

Ethical Governance of Investment Network Bulletin

1. World Summit Attracts 106 Leaders, Not USA

Environment News Service

Leaders of 106 countries have officially indicated that they will attend the United Nations World Summit on Sustainable Development set for Johannesburg, South Africa from August 26 to September 4, the UN announced today.

Return to top

2. New Interpretation of NAFTA Chapter 11 Provisions

On July 31, 2001, the NAFTA Trade Ministers (the Free Trade Commission) announced that they had agreed to the interpretation of certain provisions of Chapter 11, NAFTA's controversial investment chapter.

Return to top

3. State employees' pension fund flexes its muscle around the world

San Francisco Chronicle

They may not know it, but 1.3 million California retirees have become major players in the international campaign for human rights.

Read the article

Return to top

4. WRI report warns environmental risks could reduce shareholder value of leading oil and gas companies

A new World Resources Institute (WRI) report released today calls on investors to pay closer attention to how oil and gas companies are exposed to environmental risks.

Return to top

5. Market Slump Providing Unexpected Boost To Socially Responsible Mutual Funds

Social Investment Forum

Is the scandal-fueled stock market slump turning more Americans into socially responsible investors? According to Lipper data released today by the nonprofit Social Investment Forum, socially and environmentally responsible mutual funds experienced positive asset growth in the first half of 2002 while U.S. diversified fund assets fell off substantially.

Return to top

We invite you to reply to today's report, and we welcome commentary or papers for distribution to the network. Send news items, discussion contributions, or other comments to:

InvestmentRules@nautilus.org

This week on the Nautilus homepage:

* Experts Discuss Scenarios for Future of U.S.-Korean Relations

* Corporate Accountability Project Releases Dodging Dilemmas? Global High Tech Report

<http://www.nautilus.org/>

New Special Forum on September 11 Attacks:

<https://nautilus.org/category/napsnet/special-policy-forum-911/>

Please visit these other Nautilus information services:

The Northeast Asia Peace and Security Network Daily Report (NAPSnet):

<https://nautilus.org/mailling-lists/napsnet/>

The South Asian Nuclear Dialogue (SAND):

<https://nautilus.org/publications/south-asia-nuclear-dialogue-network-sandnet-archives/>

The Nuclear Policy Project (NPP):

<https://nautilus.org/projects/by-name/nuclear-policy/>

The INVnet Bulletin is distributed by e-mail to network members. A world wide web version of the most recent INVnet Bulletin and archives may be found at:

<http://www.nautilus.org/enviro/Investment.html>

To join the network and receive the INVnet Bulletin by email, visit:

<http://www.nautilus.org/kiosk/signup.html>

or send an email message in any form to:
InvestmentRules@nautilus.org

To unsubscribe from the INVnet Bulletin, please visit
<http://www.nautilus.org/kiosk/unsubscribe.html>

View this online at: <https://nautilus.org/uncategorized/invnet-biweekly-update-july-31-2002/>

Nautilus Institute
608 San Miguel Ave., Berkeley, CA 94707-1535 | Phone: (510) 423-0372 | Email:
nautilus@nautilus.org