

The Nautilus Institute

for Security and Sustainable Development

EAST ASIA SCIENCE AND SECURITY MEETING

EASSC 2006 Meeting Agenda

Nov 3

AM reports from

- Tatsujiro Suzuki, Tadahiro Katsuta on spent fuel research & analysis
- Jungmin Kang on spent fuel research and analysis
- Peter Hayes: Proposed joint GNEP Asia-Pacific paper by all EASSC colleagues

PM

- DVH on DPRK energy security research and analysis
- Richard Tanter, Scott Bruce, on TMD and FOIA work
- Li Bin on Chinese perspectives

Nov 4

AM

- Tatsujiro and colleagues on dual use export control research
- Frank von Hippel and colleagues on domestic export control issues
- Frank von Hippel on GNEP potential and pitfalls.

PM Work planning session

- 2007 draft workplan, variants given uncertainties re JK and TK location
- MacArthur renewal discussion
- EASSCNet: Tim Savage briefing
- Publication strategy of scholarly publications
- Global Collaborative training (Tim Savage)

Appendix B: Agenda for EASSC Scenarios Workshop

2006 East Asian Science and Security Collaborative (EASSC) Scenarios Workshop Agenda

November 5, Beijing, China

5 November

| | |
|----------------|--|
| 09:00 – 09:30 | Groups - List Driving Forces |
| 09:30 – 10:00 | Plenary – Cluster driving forces |
| 10:00 – 10:15 | Plenary – Vote |
| 10:15 – 10:30 | BREAK |
| 10:30 – 11:00 | Plenary - Matrix |
| 11:00 – 12:00 | Groups – Narratives: headlines |
| 12:00 – 13:00 | LUNCH |
| 13:00 – 14:00 | Groups – flesh out narratives |
| 14:00 – 14:30 | Plenary – Share narratives |
| 14:30 – 14:45 | BREAK |
| 14:45 -- 15:30 | Groups – What policy measures would realize the goal of the Focal Question? Actors, actions |
| 15:30 – 16:00 | Plenary – Report |
| 16:00 – 16:30 | Plenary – Identify robust measures common amongst scenarios |
| 16:30 – 17:00 | Plenary - Reflections |

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

