HEADQUARTERS, EIGHTH U. S. ARMY APO 96301
FOREWORD

1. This semi-annual chronology, part of a continuing series, is designed primarily as a supplement to the classified Eighth US Army historical report for the corresponding period.

2. Comprised of entries on historic firsts, changes of command, anniversaries, command visits, and other significant events in Korea, this journal provides a handy reference document of the day-by-day sequence of events affecting Eighth Army.

3. Recipients are authorized to extract or reproduce portions as desired.

4. Comments by users pertaining to the utility or improvement of this compendium are welcome.

NOTE: For uncommon abbreviations, see Glossary inside back cover.
JANUARY

1 ROK President PARK Chung Hee, in a New Year's message to his country, urges a strengthening of national security in light of late 1973 Communist violations of waters contiguous to five ROK islands in the Yellow Sea. Concurrently, NK leader KIM Il Sung encourages a people's revolution in the South, urging those leading ongoing anti-ROKG movements to "continue their brave struggle against US and Japanese aggressors."

5 ROKN patrol boats chase off a NK naval vessel in the year's first reported intrusion of territorial waters surrounding five ROK islands off the west coast. This is the ninth provocation disclosed since the Communists began incursions in the Yellow Sea last Oct.

5 The ROK charges the North with making more than 12,000 propaganda broadcasts against the South since 1972. The tirades, originating from a Haeju (NK) station, are on the increase. In contrast, the South has ceased similar operations as agreed by both sides in Nov 72.

5 The ROK MCI informs that the Korean economy supplied the UNC in 1973 with $28.6 million in commodity sales, $26.5 million in services and $18.3 million in construction.

8 ROK President Park proclaims "emergency measures" to insure national security and to end three months of anti-government public protests led by student, religious, press, and political groups. Hereafter, a special military tribunal may pass sentences of up to 15 years imprisonment on anyone openly opposing the 1972 constitution reforms which broadened presidential powers.

9 GEN John W. Vogt, Jr, CINC PACAF, and GEN Donald V. Bennett, CINCUSARPAC, arrive for six days of staff conferences and inspections. Accompanying them is USARPAC CSM Farrell C. Graham.
JANUARY

9 Combined ROK/US investigation teams, operating in the Yongsan (Seoul) area, announce that 45 persons, including 21 US servicemen and seven dependents, were apprehended in Dec for black market activities. As a result of the roundup, merchandise valued at $1,800 was confiscated and fines of 2.4 million won ($6,000) were assessed by Korean customs authorities.

11 Following a check-up of prostitutes in areas adjacent to US military installations which revealed a 27.5 percent VD rate, the ROK Health and Social Affairs Ministry decrees that henceforth those "business girls" must register for regular examinations and treatment at any of 192 national health centers.

11 Rep Benjamin A. Gilman (R-NY) begins a two-day visit with ROK officials.

12 MG Edward P. McNeff, 5th AF Vice Cdr, arrives for two-days of consultations in connection with the ongoing visit of CINCPACAF.

14 DOD announces plans to reduce the level of the armed forces to 2,174,000 by FY 75. Projected ceiling of each service, with actual current strength in parenthesis, is given as follows:
Army 782,000 (786,000); Navy 551,000 (561,000); Marine Corps
196,000 (190,000); and the Air Force 645,000 (678,000).

14 In ceremonies at Camp Red Cloud, MG CHOI Suk Shin replaces MG LEE Jae Jeon as DCG of I Corps (ROK/US) Gp. Lee was attached to the I Corps (Gp) in late 1970 to assist in the 1 Jul 71 establishment of the first combined command in the history of the ROK Armed Forces.

15 The ROKA marks the 28th anniversary of its activation. In its relatively short history, the ROKA has become one of the Free World's largest and best trained armies.

15 In connection with Racial Awareness Week, religious services are held throughout Eighth Army to commemorate the birthday of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr, born on this date in 1929. The civil rights leader was assassinated on 4 Apr 68.

16 Following a recent visit to the 2d Div, 38th ADA Bde, and USAG-Y, COL Ernest R. Frazier, DA's Director of Equal Opportunity, reports that progress is being made to achieve racial harmony. He emphasizes command involvement as the contributing factor to Eighth Army's improvement while placing blame for last fall's incidents on a small faction of militants.
JANUARY

16  Mr. Derek J. Vander Schaaf, staff member of the House (Defense) Appropriations Committee, begins eight days of briefings and conferences with ranking USFK officials on requirements for maintaining 42,000 US troops in Korea.

18  In a nationally broadcast press conference, President Park proposes a non-aggression pact between the two Koreas, noting that such an accord would not supplant the 1953 Armistice. Also, he rebukes NK's peace treaty overture of last Jun as an attempt to demilitarize the South's defenses, thus allowing possible reinvasion by the Communists.

20  I Corps, one of the senior major tactical units in the US Army with 20 campaign streamers, celebrates its 56th anniversary. The Corps has been reconfigured into a combined ROK/US headquarters but continues its heritage.

20  Dr. Francis S. McGlade, the Army's Safety Director, arrives for a four-day review of the command's accident prevention program.

21  In a speech marking the sixth anniversary of the abortive NK commando raid on the ROK Presidential Mansion, President Park warns that there are indications of intensified Communist provocations similar to the level experienced in 1968.

21  DEPSECSTATE Kenneth Rush says the US is determined to maintain a force of about 200,000 in Pacific and Asian areas in order to insure stability in "a region of turbulent change."

22  TROKA, headquartered 25 miles S of Seoul at Yongin, celebrates the first anniversary of its activation.

22  SECSTATE Kissinger tells newsmen that the US supports the ROK position on the disputed Yellow Sea islands but adds that he doesn't feel recent NK provocations in that area are indicative of major Communist power intentions.

22  Hon William K. Brehm, Asst SECDEF for Manpower and Reserve Affairs, begins a week-long series of conferences with USFK officials on possible consolidation/reduction of the tri-headquarters.

23  Lunar New Year. Today begins the Year of the Tiger in the Orient and the year 4307 in Korean history.

23  ROK observes Freedom Day. On this date 20 years ago, ROK President Syngman Rhee freed 7,604 NKA and 14,235 CHICOM prisoners who chose freedom by refusing to return to Communist hands.
23 USS Pueblo hijacked by NK six years ago today. One crewman was killed; remaining 82 were released from captivity 11 months later. Communists still retain the vessel.

23 Ten fire engines and crews from US Army units in Taegu and Waegwan assist in battling flames which destroy a $40 million cotton factory in Kumi, 180 miles S of Seoul. No injuries are reported. It is the most costly fire in Korea's history.

24 In a ceremony at Eighth Army HQ, 22 members of the 52d Avn Bn and 45th Trans Co are decorated for their performance in Pakistan during the devastating 1973 flood. Between 20 Aug and 3 Oct the flood relief team's six helicopters rescued 200 refugees and transported 100 tons of emergency food and medical supplies to victims.

25 Robert S. Ingersoll, Asst SECSTATE for East Asian and Pacific Affairs, arrives for three days of discussions with ROKG officials. Also on a brief visit to Korea is Rep Otto E. Passman (D-LA), Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Foreign Affairs.

25 Bonnie L. Seiber, 28-year-old wife of SP5 Vaughn T. Seiber, takes the oath of enlistment, thus becoming the first female dependent in Korea to join the US Army. Next week she will depart for basic training in CONUS while her husband completes his tour with the 802d Engr Bn.

25 Recreation centers at Camps Gary Owen, Henry and Casey receive the top three USARPAC awards, respectively, for publicity on their activities and programs during 1973. There are 19 centers in Korea.

26 NK rejects recent ROK proposal for a non-aggression pact between the two Koreas, claiming that such an accord would perpetuate division of the peninsula.

27 First anniversary of the Vietnam ceasefire agreement which ended US involvement in the longest war in our nation's history--11 years and 28 days; second to WW II in expenses--$137 billion; and fourth to the Civil War, WW II and WW I in deaths--more than 56,200 (the Korean War ranks fifth with 54,246 American dead). To express America's continuing concern for the 1,200 US missing and 1,100 unrecovered dead servicemen in SEA and their families, President Nixon proclaims this date as National MIA Awareness Day.

27 MG Dean Van Lydegraf, CG, USA QM Ctr, begins a six-day inspection of Eighth Army's food service and commissary activities.
JANUARY

27 LTG Richard T. Knowles, Eighth Army CCG, returns to Korea after a month's absence during which he attended a DA race relations seminar in conjunction with leave.

28 MG Herman Poggemeyer, Jr, III MAF CG, arrives for four days of conferences with US and ROK officials, and tours of ROKMC installations.

29 Local demographers state that the ROK's population of 32,905,000 makes it the third most densely inhabited country in the world. In addition, the 6.3 million people in Seoul live in the world's fifth most congested city.

29 Dr. George L. Pratt, EPA's Director of Education and Manpower Planning, begins a five-day review of his agency's training programs in Eighth Army.

30 Following a meeting at Panmunjom, the Vice Co-Chairmen of the NSCC delegations report no progress in attempts to reorganize the committee representation, a prerequisite to reconvening plenary talks. The reunification dialogue has been suspended since last Aug.

30 The ROK OLA reports that the country's 1.17 million workers earn an average 25,400 won ($63.50) per month with only 7.3 percent paid more than 50,000 won ($125). By comparison, USFK's 23,000 KN employees receive an average monthly base pay of 64,000 won ($160).

30 US Ambassador to Korea Philip C. Habib returns to Seoul following two-months of home leave and consultations in Washington, D.C.

31 Members of USFK and Eighth Army join with other government, military and civilian leaders around the world in the 22d annual National Prayer Breakfast to seek divine guidance for national leadership. Observances are held on military bases at Yongsan, Taegu, Pyongtaek, Osan and Kunsan.

31 A USARPAC team judges Yongsan's Eighth Army Consolidated Dining Facility and Camp Libby's PDSK Dining Facility to be the command's top large and small food service operations, respectively.

31 MG William E. McLeod, Eighth Army CoS, assumes concurrent duty as UNCMAC Senior Member vice MG Thomas U. Greer who departs to command the USATC (Inf), Ft Dix, NJ. Except for a brief period in Oct 65 when MG Lawrence E. Schlanser also served as Eighth Army CoS and UNCMAC Senior Member, the position has normally rotated semi-annually among the US military departments. McLeod is the 43d general or flag rank officer to hold the position since the Korean Armistice of Jul 53.
JANUARY

31 GEN George S. Brown, USAF CofS, is presented the ROK Order of National Security Merit, Tongil by President Park upon his arrival for three days of discussions with ROK/US military and government officials.

31 A Canadian National Defense College study group comprised of 50 faculty members and students are briefed at Eighth Army headquarters while on a three-day visit to Korea as guests of the ROK National War College.

FEBRUARY

1 The DA-supported Parade of American Music Month begins today with band concerts and other musical events scheduled throughout Eighth Army.

1 Mrs. Margaret J. Williamson, the Army nominee from Korea, is selected as USARPAC Military Wife of the Year. She is the wife of LTC Robert L. Williamson, JUSMAG-K.

2 The Army Nurse Corps, including a professional staff of 93 throughout Eighth Army, today celebrates 73 years of service.

4 USO marks its 33rd year as a soldier welfare organization and its 18th anniversary in Korea.

6 DA announces plans to eliminate USARPAC and six other management or support-type headquarters during the next 12 to 15 months in order to redistribute manpower and budgetary assets to combat units. As a result of this and related world-wide consolidations/reductions, the present 13-division US Army will be increased by at least a brigade during FY 75. A fighting arm of 16 divisions is envisioned.

7 MG Gerhardt W. Hyatt, Chief of Chaplains, begins a six-day tour to observe religious activities at US Army installations throughout the ROK.

9 The ROKG reveals that NK has recently moved air bases and river-crossing equipment close to the DMZ while publicly threatening renewed aggression against the South. It reports the North has 2.67 million men under arms; a 470,000-man regular army; 50,000 security guards; a militia of 1,450,000; and 700,000 Red Guard youths. NK weapon systems are given as: 800 aircraft (598 jet fighters); 320 naval vessels including 60 gunboats, 18 missile-launching ships, and 3 submarines; 1,180 tanks; 200 armored vehicles; 6,000 cannons; 50 SAM bases; and six ground-to-sea missile facilities.
FEBRUARY

9 Figures released on the seventh anniversary of the effectuation of the ROK/US SOFA reveal that the ROK has assumed criminal jurisdiction over US personnel in 358 cases with 309 convictions and 6 acquittals thus far. Of the 309 convicted, 220 were fined, 74 received suspended sentences, and 15 US citizens were given prison terms (including 6 individuals still under confinement). US military personnel were involved in 138 cases whereas civilians and dependents accounted for 220 cases. SOFA representatives have conducted 91 formal meetings to date.

10 US libraries and recreation centers in Korea schedule special programs and guest speakers to observe Black History Week which begins today.

10 A four-man DA orientation team arrives in the ROK for a one-week visit to acquaint Eighth Army NCOs with the latest information on enlisted personnel policy and procedures.

12 Seven pro football stars begin a seven-day USO tour of US military installations in Korea. They are: Franco Harris of the Pittsburgh Steelers; Jim Mandich, Miami Dolphins; Diron Talbert, Washington Redskins; Jack Youngblood, Los Angeles Rams; Bill Munson, Detroit Lions; John Gilliam, Minnesota Vikings; and Art Thomas, Oakland Raiders.

12 A task force of 100 ROK customs agents and policemen raid Seoul's South Gate black market area. Five truckloads of electrical appliances, cosmetics and food items, most of which were obtained from US PXs and commissaries, are confiscated. Only one person was arrested, reportedly for interference.

14 Rep William L. Dickson (R-AL), a member of the House Armed Services Committee, begins a four-day in-country analysis of possible phase-downs, or other cost-saving measures relating to the US military structure in Korea.

15 One ROK fishing boat is sunk and another hijacked by NK gunboats in international waters about 30 miles west of Paengyong Island in the Yellow Sea. Thirteen crewmen are believed dead while 15 are held by the Communists in this first naval attack since the 4 Jul 72 N-S communique which pledged a halt to hostile acts.

16 USFK announces that purchasing controls on exchange and Class VI beverages lifted just three months ago will be reinstated to curtail an illegal flow to the Korean economy. Hereafter, individuals or families may once again buy only eight cases of beer and a like amount of soft drinks monthly.
Operational control of the Wightman NCO Academy at Camp Casey is transferred from 2d Inf Div to Eighth Army G-3. Earlier this month the first of nine classes scheduled for 1974 graduated 64 soldiers from Korea, Japan and Thailand.

The NK delegation is absent at a MAC meeting requested by the UNC to protest last week's Communist attack on two ROK fishing boats. In a prepared statement UNC spokesman MC William E. McLeod states for the record and the press that (1) the unarmed vessels carried only basic electronic navigation equipment, and (2) he was prepared to refute recent Communist charges that the ships were conducting espionage missions.

As a result of a continuing drive to identify and eliminate corruption and other irregularities, 657 ROKG officials and employees are dismissed. No criminal charges are filed in this most wide-sweeping purge since President Park came to power in 1961.

A pay increase averaging ten percent for ROK military personnel is effected which raises a four-star general's monthly salary to 188,000 won ($470), a colonel's to 92,700 won ($232), and a captain's to 45,600 won ($114). Lower EM are given benefits in lieu of pay raises.

Hon Eugene E. Berg, Asst SA (I&L), Mr. Rufus L. Crockett, Dep Asst SAF (Instl), and their parties arrive for separate two-day reviews of selected Army and Air Force support activities.

Radio Pyongyang claims that the captain of the ROK fishing vessel seized earlier this month has "confessed" that his ship was on an espionage mission. The hijack and the spy charge are denounced by ROKG leaders at a Seoul rally attended by an estimated one million persons.

A 120-ton ROKN tug boat on a training mission capsizes off the peninsula's southern coast, drowning 159 of 312 naval recruits aboard. Overloading, storm conditions and poor navigation are blamed for the incident, the most tragic in the ROKN's 25-year history.

Congressmen Clement J. Zablocki (D-WV) and William S. Broomfield (R-MI), members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, conclude a four-day official visit to the ROK.

ASP begins today at the US Army's Sea Range for HAWK/Nike Hercules units of the 38th ADA Bde and ROKA AD Cmd.
FEBRUARY

25 North and South Red Cross representatives meet at Panmunjom for first time since talks were suspended last Aug. Today's meeting, intended to address means of reopening plenary humanitarian discussions, makes no progress as both sides exchange accusations regarding NK attacks on ROK fishing vessels.

25 The bitterest late winter cold spell to hit Korea in 50 years disrupts transportation as temperatures drop to five degrees in Seoul and 20 below zero in the forward areas.

25 Eighth Army CSM Donald Peroddy hosts a SGM Dining-In at the Yongsan Hideaway NCOOM with GEN Richard G. Stilwell, Eighth Army CG, as guest speaker. The 185 attendees include all US Army sergeants major and the top NCOs of ROKA and the ROK/US sister services in Korea.

27 NSCC representatives meet today at Panmunjom in an unsuccessful effort to resume their stalemated talks on reunification. Made public, however, is a 1972 NK admission that it had perpetrated the 1968 abortive commando raid on the ROK Presidential Mansion. Previously the North had maintained that the attempted attack was the work of South Korean rebels.

28 At today's 348th MAC meeting, UNCMAC Senior Member Army MG McLeod demands return of the ROK fishing boat and crew hijacked by NK gunboats 15 Feb, calls sinking of her sistership and loss of that crew akin to murder, and ridicules the alleged spy confession as "an obvious cover story" to justify attacks on the two trawlers.

28 The North claims that US SR-71 high altitude reconnaissance planes, operating from bases in Japan, are conducting almost daily espionage flights over NK.

28 ADM KIM Kyu Sup, ROKN CNO and RADM CHA Su Kap, Vice CNO, are retired in wake of last week's maritime disaster in which 159 Navy trainees lost their lives. Three other ROKN officials are charged with negligence in the incident. Replacing KIM is newly-promoted ADM HWANG Chong Yon, former Chinhae Naval Base Commander.

MARCH

1 Pentagon spokesman Jerry Friedheim tells newsmen that there are no immediate plans to redeploy US troops from Korea. His remarks follow yesterday's statement by SECDEF James Schlesinger to the House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee which disclosed the long-range possibility of replacing the lone US division in the ROK with a US Army/Marine mobile reserve force based on Guam or Hawaii.
MARCH

1 Samil Day. Host nation celebrates anniversary of the 1 March 1919 independence movement against Japanese colonial rule. In a speech marking the occasion, ROK President PARK Chung Hee calls on North Korea to reconsider his offer of a non-aggression pact, emphasizing that such an accord would provide the foundation for peaceful reunification of the peninsula.

2 BG Lilian Dunlap, Chief of the Army Nurse Corps, arrives for a week-long inspection tour of Army medical facilities in the ROK.

3 FOAL EAGLE FY 74, a month-long FTX designed to provide staffs and field elements experience in combined US/ROK unconventional warfare procedures and techniques, begins today in the southern provinces of the ROK. Exercise combines US and ROK Army, Navy and AF units.

3 In an unprovoked incident at the Panmunjom JSA, 120 NK guards riot, inflicting minor bruises on four UNC guards (3 US, 1 ROK) and slightly damaging four UNC sedans. The 30-minute melee is the first clash between security personnel in the truce area since Oct 70.

USARPAC initiates a two-week-long AGI of HQ Eighth Army and selected subordinate commands.

President Richard M. Nixon tells a national television audience that withdrawal of US troops from Europe and Korea is "good short-range politics but disastrous long-term statesmanship."

Mr. Howard E. Rosenblum, DOD's Asst Dep Director for RE, begins a three-day staff visit to the tri-headquarters.

A 15-member DA orientation team initiates a week-long series of career counseling sessions throughout the ROK for Eighth Army officers and warrant officers. Heading the group is BG John F. Forrest, Director of OPD.

A Pyongyang letter to Congress advocates bilateral NK-US talks on settling the Korean Armistice. The dispatch proposes a non-aggression pact, mutual cessation of military build-up on the peninsula, and withdrawal of the UNC. State Department officials note the similarity between this Communist overture and one of last Apr which elicited little response in Washington. The ROKG terms the action a propaganda guise aimed at weakening the South's defenses.
MARCH

25 The 38th ADA Bde, headquartered at Osan AB, celebrates the 13th anniversary of its reactivation.

25 Three more aircraft of Korean War fame are displayed at the Yoi Island Korean War Memorial in Seoul. A USN F9J Cougar, USAF B-26 Invader, and USMC F4U4 Corsair were donated by the respective US services to Korea's UN War Allies Association. They will be exhibited beside a B-29 Superfortress, C-124 Globemaster, F-51 Mustang, F-86 Sabre and T-11 trainer.

28 SECDEF James Schlesinger tells a Pentagon news conference that there are no present plans to withdraw American troops from Korea. He states, however, that eventually the roles and functions of US Army forces in the ROK will be changed and indicates the 2d US Inf Div in Korea may become a mobile reserve force for the Pacific area.

28 Escalating costs of crude oil nearly double the retail price for a gallon of gasoline at the KRE filling stations operated by Honam Oil Refinery Co in Seoul and Taegu. Regular gas jumps from 27.2 to 47 cents and premium increases to 54 cents from 28.8. Gasoline on the Korean economy costs the equivalent of about $2.00 a gallon.

13 KNRC Vice President LEE Bum Suk, addressing the Conference of Experts on the Reuniting of Dispersed Families being held in Italy, makes public a 26 Apr 74 proposal by the ICRC to arbitrate the deadlocked N-S Red Cross talks. The ROK agreed to the offer but NK, absent by choice from this international conference, has not replied and has yet to accept a tripartite meeting.

13 BG Max Etkin, Eighth Army G-4, departs to command the DESC in Dayton, OH. Assuming his duties is newly-promoted BG Emil L. Konopnicki, formerly with DCSLOG.
The 199th observance of the US Army's birthday and Flag Day are celebrated simultaneously throughout Eighth Army.

As part of the ongoing headquarters realignment, Eighth Army G-3 Avn is disbanded and its functions transferred to the newly-activated US Army Cbt Avn Gp, Korea (Prov).

USAID/K Director Michael Adler is quoted as saying at a press conference that major financial assistance to the ROK will terminate after FY 75. US aid to Korea totals $11.592 billion, one of the highest amounts provided any country. That figure represents $6.041 billion in military assistance (not including US expenditures during the Korean War) and $5.551 billion in economic aid.

LTC Walter T. Calligan, 5th AF Cdr, begins a three-day command and staff visit to Korea.

FVT Charles P. Miller, 61st Maint Co, is accidentally electrocuted while guarding US property aboard a train. Miller, 17, climbed on top of a boxcar at a Seoul station and came in contact with a 25,000-volt power cable.

Seoul's 38-year-old Bando Hotel closes to make room for the 45-story Hotel Lotte. From Aug 45 to Aug 53, the nine-story building, once Korea's finest, served alternately as HQ for USAMC and the XXIV Corps, the American Embassy, US economic aid mission, and field grade quarters for Eighth Army.

In ceremonies held at Knight Field today, ROK/US dignitaries pay tribute to JUSMAG-K and the 25-year-old American military advisory and assistance effort to the Korean armed forces. JUSMAG-K, formed in 1971, traces its heritage to KMAG which was established on 1 Jul 49.

The ROKG launches ULCHI 74, an annual nation-wide CPX to check defense capabilities in the event of NK invasion. The four-day exercise, sponsored by the ROK National Security Council, will involve participation by UNC/USFK/Eighth Army.

BG Emil L. Konopnicki, Eighth Army G-4, throws a switch at YDPC putting into operation a newly-received IBM 360/50 computer. The $1.5 million third generation model is the automated core for SIDPERS and STANFINS, two Army standard systems to be introduced in the command during first half FY 75.
MND SUH Jyung Chul takes public note of NK's military buildup and increased subversive activities against the South. He warns that the Communists have the capability to wage a conventional or guerrilla war against the ROK when a "decisive opportunity arises."

Twenty-four years ago today the NKA struck across the 38th Parallel in an all-out attack which started a three-year war that cost an estimated 2,405,000 military/civilian casualties and displaced about 3.7 million refugees. On this anniversary, rallies are staged throughout the ROK and attended by upward of a million citizens in a display of united determination to thwart further Communist designs against the South.

During Senate testimony in support of the Administration's request for $161.5 million in FY 75 MAP aid to Korea, ADM Thomas Moorer, Chairman of the JCS, says that the five-year $1.5 billion ROKF modernization program is almost $346 million behind schedule.

ROK makes public an ICRC letter of 14 Jun 74 to the NK Red Cross proposing that a representative of the international organization visit the North in an attempt to ascertain the fate of 426 South Koreans believed to be in NK custody, some since 1954. Most of the abductees held by the Communists are fishermen, but also listed are 20 crew members and passengers of domestic KAL flights hijacked in 1958 and 1969.

Six years ago AAFES designated Korea as a separate exchange region (KRE). Today, the operation employs 130 Americans and 2,200 KNs in facilities which include 167 retail stores and 106 food outlets; another 3,445 persons are associated with KRE's 1,078 concessions.

BG James L. Collins, Jr, CMH DA, begins a three-day visit which will include discussions with US commanders and MND/ROKA colleagues.

MG Hubert S. Cunningham, JUSMAG-K Chief, departs for assignment with J-3, JCS. No replacement has been named.

ROK Maritime Police Boat #863, escorting fishing craft off the east coast near the seaward extension of the MDL, is encircled by three NK gunboats and subsequently sunk after a two-hour firefight. A rescue attempt by ROK planes and ships—which spot MIGs within two miles of the area—is thwarted by poor weather conditions. This incident, the second major NK sea provocation this year, ignites an exchange of charges at today's Panmunjom meeting of NSCC Co-Chairmen. Seoul demands an apology and immediate return of survivors and bodies from the 29-man crew, whereas Pyongyang accuses the South of deliberately dispatching the vessel into NK waters.
JUNE

30 Effective today the AFEM for service in Korea is terminated by DOD. The medal, first authorized in Oct 66 concurrent to increased hostilities on the peninsula, was awarded to all US military personnel stationed in the ROK for a minimum of 30 consecutive days. Hostile fire pay and overseas bar credit for US soldiers in the forward area was discontinued on 31 Aug 73.

30 The 1974 AER/ARS campaign closes in Eighth Army with estimated contributions of $34,000. Funds will be used to render assistance in time of need to military members and their families.

30 The all volunteer Army, completing its first year today, is termed by Secretary Calloway "a great success" in meeting its personnel goal. He notes that DA's end FY 74 objective of 782,500 men and women in uniform is exceeded by 1,500.
