

Nautilus at RMIT presents

The Security and Sustainability LECTURE SERIES

Global Nuclear Futures: An insider's view from Japan by Tatsujiro Suzuki

Tatsujiro Suzuki is a nuclear engineer with long experience of the Japanese nuclear power industry. He works on energy security, nuclear proliferation and nuclear policy. He is the founder of Peace Pledge and leader of the Plutonium/Spent Fuel Project for Nautilus Institute's East Asia Science and Security Collaborative. He is Senior Researcher, Socio-Economic Research Center, Central Research Institute of Electric Power Industry in Tokyo and Professor in the Graduate School of Public Policy at Tokyo University.

TIME

2-4pm

DATE

Sunday 3 September 2006

PLACE

Casey Plaza, Bowen Street
RMIT City Campus MELWAY REF 2B E12

For more information please contact Nautilus at RMIT ph: 03-9925 3170 email: austral@rmit.edu.au web: <http://nautilus.rmit.edu.au/lectures>